#GLAG18 Programming- Cultivating Global Learners

GLOBAL LEARNING IN AGRICULTURE WEEK
Each day will have NEW on-demand presentations and a LIVE round table hosted by great partners in the afternoon/evening!

Monday, January 22nd: How can we leverage global experiences in our agriscience classrooms?
Example On-Demand Presentations:
- Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Farmer to Farmer Volunteer Program: An Educator Perspective
- Barriers and Opportunities for Agricultural Work-based Learning in Tasmania
- Want to make International Agriculture "REAL" for your classroom or presentation?
Evening Round Table Host (8pm EST):
Global Ag Learning Center, Hawkeye Community College

Tuesday, January 23rd: How can we utilize technology for global learning?
Example On-Demand Presentations
- Making Global Connections with Skype in the Classroom
- Utilizing Professional Online Networks to Keep International Relationship Strong
- 1 Year Down, 1 Year To Go; Let Peace Corps Take the Mic in Your Classroom,
Evening Round Table Host (Time TBD): Iowa State University, Agricultural Education and Studies Department

Wednesday, January 24th: How can we teach global agriculture in a domestic context?
Example On-Demand Presentations:
- Global Cloverbuds
- Investigation: How can high-protein soy help feed the developing world?
- Engaging Students in Agriculture in Uganda: Hosting Exchange Students
Evening Round Table Host (8pm EST): The World Food Prize Foundation

Thursday, January 25th: How can we reach diverse learners?
Example On-Demand Presentations:
- Words Are Just the Tip of the Iceberg: Identifying Strategies to Teach Diverse Learners,
- Culturally Relevant Curriculum Development
Evening Round Table Host (TIME TBD): TBD

Live Event – Friday, January 26, 1:00 – 5:00 PM EST
- Presentations
  - Updating 'Pen Pals' into a 21st Century Cultural Experience
  - Intercultural Competencies as Global Learning Outcomes
  - Texas 4-H GLOBE - Global Leadership Opportunities Beyond Education
- Keynote speaker(s) - “Transforming Global Agriculture Through Youth Engagement”
  Appiah Boateng, founder and Executive Director of 4-H Ghana, and Trent McKnight, founder of AgriCorps
- Workshop with Audrey Denney, Vivayic: Planning and Evidencing Global Learning Impact in Agriculture
- Special Presentation
Register today! THREE WAYS:

1. Just search for #GLAG18 to find our website!
2. Scan the QR Code!
3. Go to this TINYURL: https://tinyurl.com/GLAG18

TWO OPTIONS:

Access to all conference events and includes a Conference-in-a-Box shipped to your door (Only 100 available! First come, First Serve) - $50

Digital Pass – access conference events only - $25

Continuing Education Units (CEU) are being granted by the Penn State Center for Professional Personnel Development!

Special thanks for the support of our Global Learning Partners