Iowa Farmer Today Freshman Scholarship in Agricultural Education

Iowa Farmer Today strongly supports young people and their preparation for leadership in agriculture. Two $1000 scholarships will be awarded. One scholarship will be awarded to an individual who demonstrates an interest in teaching and the second scholarship will be awarded to an individual who demonstrates an interest in agricultural communications. These scholarships are for one year only and are not renewable.

Criteria:

1. Recipient must be an incoming freshman to the Department of Agricultural Education and Studies and a graduate of an Iowa high school.
2. Recipient must be enrolled in the College of Agriculture at Iowa State University and majoring in agricultural education. One scholarship will be awarded for each option of the agricultural education degree (teacher certification and communications).
3. Recipient must demonstrate financial need as documented by a completed FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) submitted to Iowa State University.
4. Preference shall be given to applicants who display leadership and participation in school and community activities.

How to apply:

1. Complete and return the attached application.
2. Be sure to obtain all necessary signatures.
3. Return completed application by March 31, 2008 (postmarked).
